

If you have only 1 hour left, don't try to study the whole syllabus. Focus on definitions, processes, differences, and 5-point answers that can be written for almost any HRM question.

60-Minute Last-Minute HRM Revision (MBCP2003)

First 10 Minutes: HRM Basics

HRM Definition

Human Resource Management is the process of planning, recruiting, selecting, training, compensating, and maintaining employees to achieve organizational objectives.

Objectives of HRM

1. Achieve organizational goals
2. Employee satisfaction
3. Employee development
4. Efficient manpower utilization
5. Good industrial relations

Functions of HRM

Mnemonic: RSTCAP

- Recruitment
- Selection
- Training
- Compensation
- Appraisal
- Personnel Relations

2-Mark Question

What is HRM?

HRM is the process of acquiring, developing, motivating, and maintaining human resources to achieve organizational goals.

Next 10 Minutes: Human Resource Planning

Definition

HRP means forecasting future manpower requirements.

Steps

1. Forecast manpower demand
2. Forecast manpower supply
3. Identify manpower gap

4. Recruitment/Training
5. Evaluation

Importance

- Right person at right job
- Avoid shortage
- Reduce labor costs
- Improve productivity

Likely Question

Explain Human Resource Planning process.

Next 10 Minutes: Recruitment & Selection

Recruitment

Meaning

Attracting qualified candidates.

Sources

Internal

- Promotion
- Transfer

External

- Advertisements
 - Job portals
 - Campus recruitment
-

Selection

Meaning

Choosing the best candidate.

Process

1. Application screening
2. Test
3. Interview
4. Reference check
5. Medical exam

6. Appointment

Difference

Recruitment

Attracts candidates

Positive process

Before selection

Selection

Chooses candidates

Negative process

After recruitment

Very Frequently Asked

Next 10 Minutes: Training & Performance Appraisal

Training

Meaning

Improving skills for current job.

Methods

On-the-job

- Coaching
- Job rotation
- Apprenticeship

Off-the-job

- Lectures
- Workshops
- Seminars

Benefits

- Better productivity
 - Less errors
 - Better morale
-

Performance Appraisal

Meaning

Evaluating employee performance.

Objectives

- Promotion
- Salary increase
- Performance improvement
- Training identification

Methods

- Rating Scale
 - Ranking Method
 - 360-Degree Feedback
-

Next 10 Minutes: Compensation

Compensation

Meaning

Rewards given to employees.

Components

1. Basic salary
2. Allowances
3. Bonus
4. Incentives
5. Fringe benefits

Objectives

- Attract employees
- Retain employees
- Motivate employees
- Ensure fairness

Productivity Formula

<MathBlockWidgetAlwaysPrefetchV2>
$$\text{Productivity} = \frac{\text{Output}}{\text{Input}}$$

</MathBlockWidgetAlwaysPrefetchV2>

Ways to Improve Productivity

- Training
- Technology
- Incentives
- Better working conditions

Last 10 Minutes: Industrial Relations

Industrial Relations

Meaning

Relationship between employer, employee, and government.

Objectives

- Industrial peace
 - Employee welfare
 - Increased productivity
 - Conflict reduction
-

Trade Union

Definition

Association of workers formed to protect their interests.

Functions

- Collective bargaining
 - Employee welfare
 - Worker representation
-

Collective Bargaining

Meaning

Negotiation between management and workers regarding wages and working conditions.

Advantages

- Better communication
 - Industrial peace
 - Better wages
-

Must-Memorize Differences

Training vs Development

Training	Development
Present job	Future job
Short term	Long term
Skill oriented	Career oriented

Personnel Management vs HRM

Personnel Management	HRM
Administrative	Strategic
Employees are cost	Employees are assets
Short term	Long term

Recruitment vs Selection

Recruitment	Selection
Attracting candidates	Choosing candidates
Positive	Negative

Emergency Exam Strategy

For any 10-mark question, write:

1. Definition
2. Objectives
3. Process/Types
4. Advantages
5. Conclusion

Even if you know only 4–5 points, writing the answer in this structure usually earns more marks than writing random paragraphs.

Top 5 Questions to Remember

1. HRM and its functions
2. Human Resource Planning
3. Recruitment and Selection
4. Training and Development
5. Industrial Relations and Collective Bargaining